

Privacy Policy for Austin Clinical Research LLC

Last updated: 04/30/2025

Our Commitment to Privacy

At Austin Clinical Research LLC, your privacy is important to us. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect your information when you interact with our business, whether through our website, over the phone, or in person.

Information We Collect

This policy applies to all information collected or submitted via our website and/or social media. We may request data for quotes, services, or additional information. The types of personal information we may collect include:

- Your name
- Phone number
- Email address
- Mailing or service address
- Payment information (if applicable)
- Details about your project or service request

We may also collect non-personally identifiable information, such as browser type, pages visited, or general location, to better understand user behavior and improve our services.

How We Use Your Information

We use the information you provide to deliver services, respond to inquiries, and provide quotes or updates. We only share your information with trusted third parties when necessary to fulfill your request.

Your contact details may be used to follow up with you, but we will not use them for unrelated marketing without your consent.

We may also use non-identifying, aggregated data to improve our website and/or social media accounts or services. This data does not include anything personally identifiable.

We do not use or share your personal information for any other purpose without giving you the opportunity to opt out.

Our Commitment to Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access and maintain data accuracy, we implement appropriate administrative, physical, and technical safeguards to protect the information we collect.

Our Commitment to Children's Privacy

We are committed to protecting the privacy of children. We do not knowingly collect or store personal information from anyone under the age of 13, and our website and/or social media accounts are not intended to attract children.

Your Privacy Rights

Depending on your location, you may have certain privacy rights (such as the right to access, correct, delete, or restrict the use of your personal data). Please contact us to exercise these rights.
